

Member Spotlight - Sarah Morreim

I am from St. Paul , my hometown.

I got my start in the biz through my headshot photography business - working with actors inspired me to take professional steps towards the craft of filmmaking.

I am currently working as a Freelance Photographer, Co-founder of the nonprofit, Story Board, and as a Development Associate at Crowley , White and Helmer (a professional fundraising firm in St. Paul).

The project I am most excited about is Story Board recently wrapped its "Pinocchio - Story, Stage and Screen" filmmaking series with a special screening of student films at the Parkway Theater (a collaboration with the MN Opera). We had a fantastic turnout, over 200 supporters, and the student adaptations of Pinocchio were so creative.

Story Board is currently working on its 2009-2010 programming. We're excited to provide another year of mentoring and educational programs to students interested in filmmaking. We appreciate your support!

In ten years I see myself creating and collaborating.

The best part about being a member of MN WIFT is networking and being part of a community of professional women working in the industry.

I think we can strengthen the community of women in production by continuing fantastic educational programs like the 'Pitch It' workshop MN WIFT offered its members last fall.

Most people don't know that I was a Psychotherapist for 6 years.

If I could be anywhere in the world right now it would be a villa in Tuscany (a girl can dream). Three people I would love to meet are 1) Hillary Clinton, 2) Sally Potter, 3) Lisa Hancock (a talented NYC headshot photographer)

If you are a MN WIFT member and would like to be featured in a member spotlight or would like to nominate another member - please send your information and photo to communications@mnwift.org
