

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT - Caitlin Tyler

I am from Minneapolis, Minnesota.

I got my start in the biz by attending the Los Angeles Film School.

I am currently working as a Student.

The project I am most excited about is the short [film] I am the DP on, "Land That I Love", directed by Jamie Ogata.

In ten years I see myself camera operating for film, television, and commercials.

The best part about being a member of MN WIFT is being a part of a great network of talented filmmakers.

I think we can strengthen the community of women in production by promoting events and getting more women filmmakers involved.

Most people don't know that I love to travel!

If I could be anywhere in the world right now it would be London, England.

Three people I would love to meet are Joel and Ethan Coen and Sam Mendes.
